

Alpe d'Huez

FRANCE
from $1898

There are few places to rival Alpe d'Huez for the impressive extent and variety of its slopes, which rank it a giant among ski resorts.

Due to long hours of sunshine, it is often known as "the island in the sun."

The 87 efficient modern lifts top out at the Sarenne glacier near 11,000 feet. And 150 miles of high sunny trails, mainly above tree-line, split interestingly into four well-interconnected sectors. On the world's longest run, 7,250 vertical feet over 10 miles, you ski non-stop for over an hour.

Famous for its Olympic bobsled events, Alpe d'Huez is now one of Europe's premier freeskiing locations, from fairly tame to seriously adventurous.
