

Courmayeur

ITALY from $1239

Courmayeur is the other Italian side of Mont Blanc, with a seductive village and stunning scenery. It is a traditional old mountaineering village that, despite some modern development, retains an old-world feel. The cobbled streets of the charming center are traffic-free; the buildings are well-preserved; and the shops are stylish.

Courmayeur has its own, predominantly intermediate, ski areas mainly above-the-tree-line in the Checrouit sector and tree-lined in interconnected Val Veny.

More serious skiers board the three-stage gondola on the shoulder of Mont Blanc leading to the famous guided Vallée Blanche run down to Chamonix (and some challenging off-piste).

Courmayeur's après ski is centered on stylish bars which are among the most civilized in the ski world.
