

AUSTRIA Innsbruck from $795

Innsbruck is not a ski resort in the usual sense; but it's the most popular European winter destination for Americans. Twice site of the Winter Olympics, the small historic city has green domes, arcaded shops, pedestrian squares, and a vibrant cultural life.

You are never far from a museum, gallery, and, of course, restaurants, bars, and evening entertainment.

Efficient ski buses whisk you from the town center to one of the nine surrounding ski areas, every one different in character.
