Kitzbühel

from $1325

Kitzbühel is a big name in the ski world, mainly due to the Hahnenkamm downhill, the most spectacular on the World Cup circuit.

All the skiing is not so rigorous, with large attractive varied slopes spread over a wide linked area. There are both high-up open runs and treed lower ones.

Kitzbühel and Wilder Kaiser are merging into one of the largest interconnected ski areas, and the new "Top-Skipass Kitzbüheler Alpen" links 5 ski regions with 245 lifts and 440 miles of trails.

In addition, the Kitzbühel Alps now offers a double guarantee of snow: constant natural snowfall and a high-tech backup of snowmaking.

Kitzbühel itself is beautiful, enclosed by walls, and traffic-free complete with colorful medieval buildings and cobbled streets. Many visitors love the ambiance, shops, and cafes. The younger crowd seeks the vibrant nightlife centered on well-known après-ski haunts.
