

Québec CANADA from $829

The main attraction of skiing in Québec is the unique French language and culture. It feels like a different country.

Old Québec is North America's only walled city and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Beyond its historic buildings, the city has a wide variety of restaurants, shops and galleries, and a thriving club scene.

Québec City is a great base from which to explore the nearby ski areas: Stoneham, Mont Sainte-Anne and Le Massif. Each area is worthwhile, different, and just a quick drive from the old city. A single interchangeable lift ticket applies to Stoneham and Mont-Sainte-Anne.
